

Start the Day Smiling!
"BRINGING UP FATHER"
appears every morning in the
Albuquerque Morning Journal

ALBUQUERQUE MORNING JOURNAL

Albuquerque, New Mexico, Sunday, April 30, 1922.

Start the Day Smiling!
"BRINGING UP FATHER"
Appears every morning in the
Albuquerque Morning Journal

PORTALES

The Rev. J. W. Bruner of Albuquerque filled the pulpit on Sunday evening at the Baptist church in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. J. F. Nix.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Baker of Vernon, Tex., were guests from Friday until Monday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker. They were on their way to Roswell, N. M., where they will locate.

The Rev. N. J. Reasoner, pastor of the Central Christian church, extended an invitation to the W. C. T. U. organization to attend services at the Christian church on last Sunday evening. His subject was "Popular Amusements of the Day."

Howard Lindsey, son of W. E. Lindsey, has placed a radioophone in his store room and will give radio concerts which will be heard all over the square, where his store is located.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Lillian Taylor was hostess at her home, with Mrs. Newman assistant hostess to the Baptist Missionary society. The devotional was in charge of Mrs. Frank Campbell and Miss Euelah Foxville was leader of lesson. She was assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ribble entertained last week-end their friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilkinson of Friona, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Greaves spent the week-end and over Sunday at Amarillo, Tex.

Cards have been received here announcing the birth of twin daughters, Imogene and Geraldine, to Mr. and Mrs. Miles Smith, Amarillo, Tex. Mrs. Smith was for several years a resident of Portales and will be remembered as Miss Bessie Fowler. She moved with her mother to Amarillo three years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Owens entertained on Friday and Saturday their friend, Dr. Eichorn of the Lederle laboratories of New York. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Strang and three children stopped here for several days the past week for a visit with Mrs. Strang's father, J. C. Cunningham, and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otto McMinn, as they were driving from Greenfield, N. M., to Los Angeles, Calif., where they will locate.

The Rev. Mrs. N. J. Reasoner returned to her home here on Saturday after an absence of five weeks at Sterling City, Tex.

"A Japanese Operetta" was presented on Monday night at the Coby theater by the pupils of the Portales high school.

The Rev. C. D. Poston, pastor of the Clovis Baptist church, was a Portales visitor a few days ago. H. C. Carver of Marlo, Okla., is a guest in the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isom, of this city.

The Misses Louise and Eva Belle Halston of Melrose spent last week with their friends, Misses Viva and Miriam Guthrie.

Messdames N. F. Wollard, T. E. Mears, J. C. Wilcox, G. M. Williamson, J. F. Stone, Coo Howard, Rose McDowell, W. E. Lindsey of Portales, and Mrs. S. F. Culbertson of Taiban were delightfully entertained at a week-end house party at the home of Mrs. George Carr at Fort Sumner, N. M.

W. H. Daniels returned last Sunday from a several days overland business trip to Tulsa, Tex.

Coda M. French and Miss Clara Belle Thompson, both of Elida, were married on Friday afternoon by the Rev. N. J. Reasoner in Portales in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. French will be at home to their friends on a ranch near Elida, N. M.

The most brilliant affair of the past week was on Friday evening when the junior class of the high school entertained the senior class and high school faculty with a 7 o'clock dinner at the band hall.

WINSLOW

A large delegation of the local Elks and their families attended the ceremonies at Gallup last Saturday. The installation of the new lodge and initiation was put on by the local lodge officers with the assistance of the district deputy exalted ruler of New Mexico. The banquet and dance was largely attended. Those attending from here were A. S. Waterman and wife, Herbert Savage and wife, Robert R. Sutherland and wife, A. G. Smith and wife, Desmond Mahoney and wife, R. C. Abell and wife, Mrs. Harry Sipe, E. F. Florin, C. C. Grover, Joe Fischer, George Kingree, Frank Howe, Gilbert Graves, W. A. Vanderbur, Lee Cochrum, Harry Smith, J. A. Davis, P. O. Robbins, L. Cooper and W. O. Perkins.

The chicken dinner given by the Bethany class of the Christian church on Tuesday evening was well attended. A neat sum was realized for the church fund.

Little Miss Jacklin Kaufman, who has been ill with scarlet fever for the past few weeks, is reported to be improving.

The first of last week a young man arrived in the city from Holbrook. He has suffered a lapse of memory. Papers on him show that his name is Charles Cardwell, but his residence has not been established as yet. The Elks and American Legion, both of which orders he claims to belong to, are in telegraphic communication trying to locate his relatives. He states that he was making a cross country trip with a man and woman in an automobile and that they run the car into him when he was repairing same and that since his injuries he cannot remember anything. His case is indeed pitiful.

E. J. Howard has left for Cleveland, O., where he will attend the annual meeting of the railway conductors. He will also visit relatives at Toledo before returning to this city.

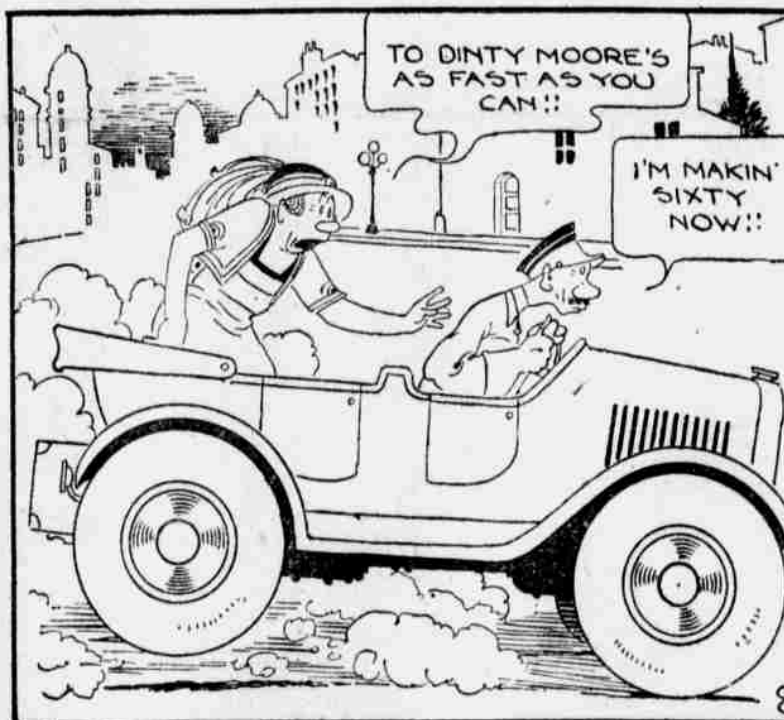

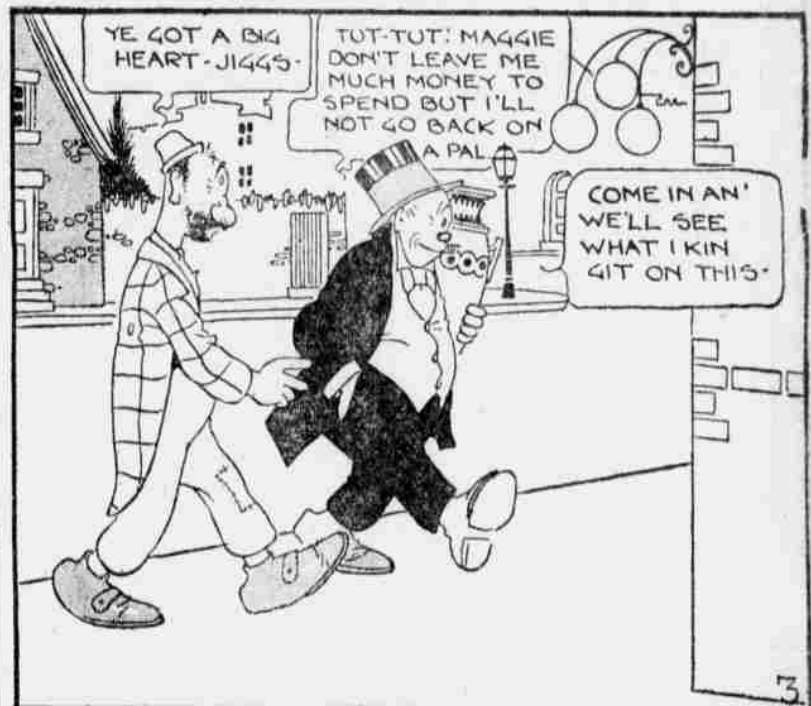

John Gratton has left for Dallas, Tex., where he goes as representative of the local lodge of railway clerks. He will be gone several weeks and on the return trip will visit relatives at Kansas City.

A girl employed in a Stockholm factory which exports matches to all parts of the world, wrote on one of the boxes, "To my prospective husband, care of Fate and Fortune, Wide World." She added her name and address. The box came to America and fell into possession of an engineer, who began a correspondence which resulted in matrimony.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

Copyright, 1921 by the International News Service, Registered U. S. Patent Office.

By George McManus.

ON SALE TOMORROW THE NEW MEN'S STRAW HATS

IN ALL THE DESIRABLE SHAPES AND NOVELTY WEAVES

Imported Straws
Domestic Straws

ROSENWALD'S MEN'S STORE

PRICES BEGIN AT $2.00